Islamic Finance and Banking Instructor

Personal Statement and Career Objective

As a conscientious, capable, and seasoned education professional, I have served as a teacher, trainer, and general manager across diverse domains for the past six years. Notably, I have excelled in implementing interest-free financial systems and fostering personnel development. My organizational skills are highly effective, enabling me to manage time efficiently and prioritize tasks and workloads adeptly. I thrive even in demanding environments, accustomed to tight schedules and deadlines. Additionally, my interpersonal abilities and customer handling skills are excellent.

Dedicated finance professional with a passion for ethical financial practices and a strong understanding of Islamic finance principles. Seeking a challenging role where I can leverage my knowledge of Sharia-compliant banking, risk management, and financial analysis to contribute to the growth and success of an organization committed to ethical financial solutions.

Over the next three years, I am committed to pursuing a Ph.D. in Islamic finance at a reputable university.

Over the next 4 to 8 years, I am dedicated to working toward establishing Ademina Academy as the pioneering institution for teaching Islamic finance and related courses.

Currently, I am pursuing studies at Imam An-Nawawi College, specializing in the Shafi'i school of jurisprudence (fiqh ash-Shafi'i). Simultaneously, I am enrolled in the Islamic Finance Institute, where I am pursuing a master's level education in Islamic finance. Additionally, I am proud to be a member of both AAOIFI (Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions) and the International Union of Muslim Scholars.

In the Harima Prior to pursuing formal academic education, I acquired Islamic knowledge in the rural areas around Wello. This learning took place at an institution known as Harima. Initially, I studied the Holy Quran, and subsequently, I delved into Fiqh (Islamic jurisprudence) within the Shafi'i school. Upon completing this foundational learning, I embarked on my formal academic journey.

In Conjunction with Formal Academic Education Even after commencing my formal academic education, I have consistently pursued Islamic studies. I continue to explore various Islamic disciplines, including Arabic language, Hadith (Prophetic traditions), Tafsir (Quranic exegesis), and history. Alhamdulillah, I have acquired substantial knowledge through this ongoing journey, and I am committed to continuing it throughout my life.

Ijazah: I am honored to hold ijazas (certificates of authorization) from esteemed scholars, including Professor Dr. Fadl Murad, Dr. Mohammed Seed Bakr, Sheikh Edris Mohammed, and other respected ulama. These ijazas empower me to teach various Islamic books. Alhamdulillah, I am grateful for this privilege.
